Republicans Declare that Expose of Wholesale Attempts to Use Belmont Repeaters Brought Them Many Votes.

In the Second Election District of the Third Assembly District a voting machine totalled the vote in fifteen seconds as follows:

Belmont, 151; Lessler, 37; Lindinger, 18.

At the last election Shepard got 208 and Low 80 in this district.

When the polls closed at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the Seventh Congressional District Perry Belmont and his friends expressed their belief that he had been elected by 2,500 majority, though they did not have the same air of confidence that was manifest earlier in the day.

Montague Lessler, the Republican candidate, and his friends, on the other hand, felt certain that the expose of the wholesale attempts to use "Belmont repeaters" had brought them many votes and were claiming victory by 700.

Belmont practically concedes Staten Island to Lessler but counts on Manhattan to

A dozen arrests were made to-day as the result of the expose of a most daring plot to vote Belmont repeaters all over the Seventh District.

Ex-Alderman Joseph Welling was arrested with $151 in new bills and fifty watchers' certificates signed "Perry Belmont" just after he had paid William Hartwig $2. Hartwig says a repeaters' plot was arranged with Welling in Belmont's headquarters.

Joseph Pye, a Tammany captain in the Third Assembly District, was arrested on a similar charge. No sooner had he been bailed than he was rearrested for causing a disturbance at the polls. At 1.30 o'clock this afternoon Supt. McCullagh announced that he had just received word that a large gang of Belmont repeaters from South and Front streets had left for Staten Island to stuff the ballot boxes with illegal ballots. McCullagh rushed all his available deputies out. He said that every man of his that he could reach would be sent to Staten Island. Wholesale arrests are expected. The plan appears to be to vote the repeaters between 3 and 5 o'clock. Most of the men have been working in Manhattan, but it has become so hot for them that they decided to move to Staten Island.

An Evening World reporter was sent to Mr. Belmont's headquarters to tell him of the

As soon as Mr. Belmont learned the reporter's errand he locked himself in his private room, the door of which usually stands open. Five minutes later he sent out word that he would see no reporters.

The desperate attempt to carry the election by wholesale frauds was first uncovered by Superintendent of Elections McCullagh through confessions of men involved. The scheme was to vote "repeaters" in the Third Assembly District, using the names of dead men and voters who had moved away.

George B. Jolliffe, the Chairman of the board in the Twelfth Election District of the Third Assembly District, was arrested this afternoon on a charge of aiding illegal voting by allowing two repeaters to vote under the names of men who had already voted, and was detected by McCullagh Deputy Ouick.

Inspector Brooks and Capt. Chapman, anticipating a rush of repeaters in the last hour of voting and consequent battles at the polls, established headquarters with a dozen plain-clothes men at Jefferson Market Court late this afternoon. Magistrate Olmsted will sit as late as may be necessary to attend to the issuance of warrants,
